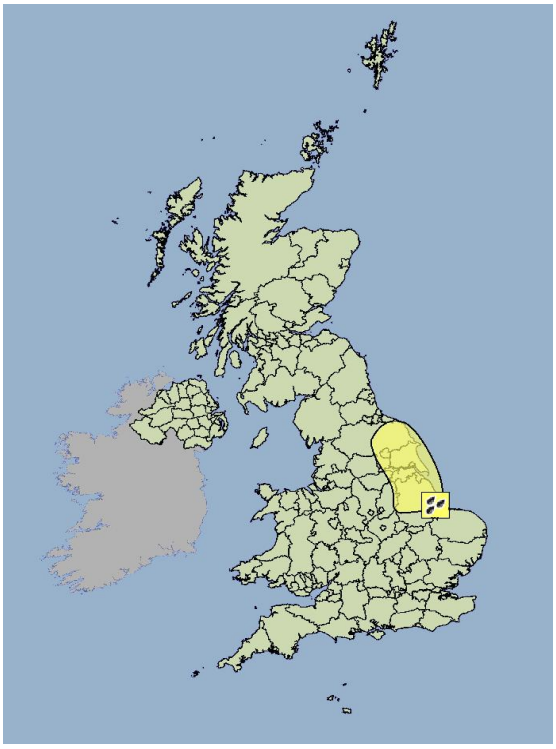
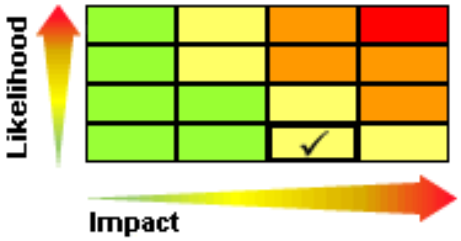
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
There is some uncertainty over developments on Thursday. However, the risk of disruption from thunderstorms is greatest across the west of the yellow area from late morning and transfers east through the afternoon, clearing the east by early evening.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 11:00 on Thu, 22nd Jun 2017 until 17:00 on Thu, 22nd Jun 2017

Heavy showers and thunderstorms may break out from late morning through to late afternoon on Thursday. Many places will miss these, but where they do occur there is a risk of sudden localised flooding of homes and businesses as well as disruption to power supplies due to lightning strikes.
